	date and venue	event	description
	Friday 10th – Sunday 19th June Carlow Town, Borris and along the River Barrow at Graiguenamanagh, Goresbridge and Carlow	Carlow Arts Festival facebook 	Carlow is home to the first big cultural event of summer 2016 – the 37th Carlow Arts Festival. It features ten unforgettable days that roam across County Carlow in three connected strands: Get inspired at the Borris Festival of Writing and Ideas , travel up-river with the unique floating mini-festival that is Barges on the Barrow , and top it all off with a big splash of colour, culture and activity in Carlow town. This year the Festival HQ returns to its spiritual home at historic Carlow College. The festival's specially built pavilion will play host to comedy, theatre, music, circus, spectacle, children's shows and more. Next door VISUAL will host the best of contemporary art which will spill out on to the streets of Carlow. Bring a picnic or check out what's on offer but be sure to spend the weekend at Festival HQ . t: +353 (0)59 9173381 w: www.carlowartsfestival.com
 	Saturday 23rd July – Monday 1st August Throughout Carlow	Carlow Garden Festival	Headed by Diarmuid Gavin, RHS Chelsea Flower Show Gold Medal Winner, this year's panel also includes James Alexander-Sinclair, RHS Gardens Judge), Thomas Pakenham (author The Company of Trees ), Mary Keen (author Paradise and Plenty: A Rothschild Family Garden ), John Massey (Ashwood Nurseries), Dr. John Grimshaw (Yorkshire Arboretum at Castle Howard), Helen Dillon, Seamus O'Brien (National Botanic Gardens), Neil Porteous (Mount Stewart), June Blake, Dermot O'Neill, Gordon Ledbetter and Brian Burke (RTÉ Super Garden 2015 Winner). t: 059-9130411 w: www.carlowgarden-trail.com
